Together Constantly in Prayer

As the war in Ukraine rages on, it is difficult to believe that it will be two years on the 24th February since it began. We lift before God the people of the Ukraine as they continue to fight for their freedom and for their Country. We pray for all the families who have lost loved ones since the war began. Strengthen the hands of all who are seeking to stop this conflict, restore order and pursue justice. We ask this also for Israel and Palestine. Lord hear our prayer.

~~~

As flooding leaves its indelible mark upon the people of our country, we pray for help to be given to those who have suffered because of it. We remember the farmers who have lost their crops and the effect that it has had upon their livelihoods, bringing them anxiety about the future.

We pray for all those we know who are dealing with health issues at the moment, either in themselves or their families. May they know that we are thinking of them and may your love, Lord, strengthen and sustain them.

If you have to choose between being kind and being right, choose to be kind.....
and you'll always be right. (Carlos Dominguez)

Fear looks around.
Worry looks in.
Faith looks up. (Nicky Gumbel)
