Together Constantly in Prayer

A prayer for Trinity Sunday

Our father, we sing of your wisdom and power,
Which brought into being the star and the flower.
We praise you for sunlight, for mountains and seas,
the snow in the winter and soft summer breeze.
But, mostly we praise you for life from above,
For glimpses of truth, intimations of love;
for strength in the battle and courage to win;
for visions of hope and forgiveness of sin.

We praise you, Christ Jesus our Saviour and Lord,
for the light of your story, the power of your word;
for the things that you did and the truths that you taught;
for the life that you lived and the love that you brought;
for the healing, forgiveness and hope that you gave,
when you hung on the cross, when your rose from the grave.

All praise to you, Spirit of power and of life,
who calls us from failure and weakness and strife
to enter the kingdom of love, joy and peace.
You give us the courage and inner release
to live for the values we read in the word
and put into practice the truths we have heard.

(The Electric Bible)

Thank you all the Dads and the Father-figures.
The Uncles, the Teachers, the Youth Leaders.
The Sports Trainers, the Foster Carers.
The Dads-of-Pals, the Shoulders-to-cry-on.
The Mum-Dads, the Big Brothers, the Mentors:
All the Men of the Village or Town whose kindness, interest, expectations and encouragement, helped to raise our children.
THANK YOU.
