Quiet Day Away

Would you be interested in a 'quiet day' away sometime in the next few months? It could be a time to walk in lovely surroundings, to sit and read, to pray, engage in a craft activity or write poetry. There could be some initial reflections to give you something to think about, and a time of sharing at the end of the day. Venue possibilities: Wydale Hall, Ampleforth Abbey, a different church outside the circuit. Some venues would offer full refreshments throughout the day (last year Wydale cost £35 pp for lunch, and coffee/tea/biscuits/ cake whenever we wanted it) Please sign the sheet in the vestibule to express your interest (without commitment at this stage), and any preferences regarding venue and cost.

Our Church 50th Anniversary celebration will take place over the week-end of 17th and 18th May. Save the date so we can all celebrate together. More info will be given nearer the time.

Together Constantly in Prayer

Blessings on Mother's everywhere,
Those that birthed us and those that did not.
Those known as Aunties,
And those known as friends,
A big thank you to all.

A contemporary version of The Lords Prayer

Eternal God, our truest friend,
May joyful praises never end.
In honour of your name.
Your reign begin within our hearts and reach to earth's remotest parts.
With ever spreading fame.
Your will be done, your dream come true, when all creation is made new in love's refining flame.

Give us, meanwhile, our daily bread,
enough for body, heart and head,
enough to see us through.
As we forgive another's debt,
and even manage to forget,
so pardon our debts too.
Protect us from temptation's lies,
so that, unfooled by sin's disguise,
we'll walk in peace with you.

Yours is the kingdom, yours the might.
Yours is the splendour of the light.
Yours is the everlasting right.
Yes! Lord, and yes! again. Amen

King Jesus

They sometimes say that Jesus was a king,
and yet he had no throne or golden crown,
no royal robes or jewelled ring.

He had no army to enforce his Law;
his wealth was not in palaces or lands;
he lived his life among the poor.

But King he is; and though he reigns unseen, and love's the only power at his command - in truth, no greater King has ever been.

(Peter Dainty)
