Together Constantly in Prayer

Lord, we are reminded what a great God you are as we continue in our walk of faith. You do not forget your people even in the midst of the difficulties life brings. You give us hope and encouragement at every turn. Help us to listen to the still small voice of your Spirit that guides, strengthens and upholds us in every situation we find ourselves in. Thank you for the blessings you pour out on us every single day and forgive us when we forget to see your hand in everything.

Our hearts are heavy, Lord, as we see and hear of the tragedies unfolding in this country and around the world. We can make no sense of the many things we are hearing of at the moment but our hope is in You and You alone. Help us to continue to be strong in our witness so that more and more people may turn to You in faith.

God allows difficulties in our life because it builds character. Character is part of God's purpose for our lives. (Rick Warren)

Thomas Edison once said;
'I have not failed, I've just found ten thousand ways that won't work'.
